Junior Congregation

Jr. Congregation will be offered to children Kindergarten through 1st grade at the 8:30 AM services of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Children in the 2nd and 3rd grade will have two options:

Those who can sit through the service quietly are welcome to sit with their families in the sanctuary.

Or

They can go to Jr. Congregation. 2nd and 3rd graders may not leave services and go to Jr. Congregation once services have begun.

Registration for Jr. Congregation is not required, we have planned a meaningful and creative Holy Day experience for your children and we are happy to have them.

Any adult interested in helping with Jr. Congregation, please contact Bettina Rappaport at brappaport@beth-el.com.

Temple Beth El Religious School will begin

September 13, 2009

If you have not returned your annual commitment letter, or are not a member in good standing, then your Religious School registration will not be processed and you will not receive a class assignment package in the mail. Please contact the Religious School office at 704.749.3046 if you have any questions.

High Holy Day Guest Ticket Policy

All Temple Beth El families in good standing will receive a ticket for each adult member of the household including children from 2nd grade through 22 years old or a full time student.

Members must purchase guest tickets for children older than 22 years who are not full time students and for other family guests for $100 each.

Visitors and guests who are members of another Reform synagogue are welcomed. Synagogues have a reciprocity form which can be faxed to Temple Beth El confirming membership in good standing. These forms should be faxed to 704-366-1365.

Guest tickets are available for non-members for $200 each.

Families who resign their membership at Temple Beth El may not purchase guest tickets for 3 years after their resignation.

Full time students at all colleges and universities will receive guest tickets at no charge.

Please send me _____ family guest tickets at $100.00 each and _____ non-member guest tickets at $200.00 each.
