

Religious Notes: Music & Ethics of Our Faiths

2010 Program

- | | | |
|-------------|---|---|
| January 5 | Religious Notes: The Music of Reform Judaism and Protestant Christianity | John Blizzard, Ph.D.
Wingate University |
| January 12 | Religious Notes: The Music of Hinduism | Chaula Jain
Indian Performing Arts
Association of Charlotte |
| January 19 | Religious Notes: The Music of Buddhism | Rev. Ryusho Jeffus
Myosho-ji, Wonderful
Voice Buddhist Temple |
| January 26 | Religious Notes: The Music of Judaism | Cantor Andrew Bernard
Temple Beth El |
| February 2 | Religious Notes: The Music of Christianity | Ben Outen
Saint Peter's Episcopal Church |
| February 9 | Timely Topic: Religion, Ethics & Government
"Religious Communities, Ethics, and Civil Society" | Douglas Ottati, Ph.D.
Davidson College |
| February 16 | Timely Topic: Religion, Ethics & Business
"God and Man in the Boardroom" | Ken Orenbach, LLD
Charlotte Attorney |
| February 23 | Religious Notes: Black Musical Contributions to Religion | Bettye C. Walker, Ph.D.
Johnson C Smith University |

Tuesdays, 7:00 – 9:00 PM with a networking and social break. Coffee and dessert provided.
Pre-registration is not required and the programs are offered free of charge for the benefit of the faith communities of Charlotte.
Donations to offset program expenses are appreciated and gladly accepted.

NEW LOCATION

Levine Jewish Community Center, Sam Lerner Cultural Center, 5101 Providence Road, Charlotte, NC 28226
The Levine Jewish Community Center is located within Shalom Park on Providence Road, just south of Fairview Road

For additional information contact Temple Beth El, 704-366-1948 or www.beth-el.com

The Temple Beth El 13th Annual Comparative Religion Interfaith Lecture and Discussion Series
Developed by the Temple Beth El Comparative Religion Committee