The Story of Wildacres

Wildacres was dedicated to I.D. and Madolyn Blumenthal to the betterment of human relations and interfaith dialogue. It is a tradition at Temple Beth El to gather as a family, young and old, singles and families, friends we've known forever, and friends we haven't yet met.

We participate in exciting and meaningful programs, learn together, eat together in the communal dining hall, pray together during Shabbat, and play together exploring the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains. As always, there will be ample time for simple relaxation, a good laugh and time to enjoy the fresh air.

Packing

Wildacres is located about 112 miles from Charlotte, near Little Switzerland in the Blue Ridge Mountains. It is not a dress-up place. Bring casual clothes, including a jacket or sweater, comfortable shoes, a raincoat and umbrella.

Sleeping accommodations have private baths and either twin beds or one double and one twin. Linens are provided, but you may wish to bring extra towels. Please let us know if you will need special accommodations.

Fees

Adult $190

Child $120 (ages 6-12)

Child $85 (ages 3-5)

Under 2 No Charge

Prices are based on double occupancy. If you require a single room the charge will be $250.

Non-members are welcome. Pricing is as follows: $265/adults in double occupancy, $320 for single occupancy.

Babysitting will be available for children under 5 years old during programs for families who request it in advance.

Confirmation with detailed program schedule and Oneg assignments will be sent in late August.

Spaces are limited. Get your registration in as soon as possible.
